ANALYSIS

STEVIE WONDER continues to dominate both the chart and airplay rankings...topping both categories. STEVIE was charted Top 5 by 226 of the 245 station's reporting it this week. Close behind at number two was BILLY OCEAN, with nearly 2,000 more total chart points and a "Hit Factor" of 95%! PRINCE could possibly prevent OCEAN going number one, but it's doubtful. "Purple Rain" enjoys a hefty increase in "Hit Factor", climbing from 78% to 91%. HALL & OATES is the only new entry inside the top ten, but expect many more next week. H&O explode with one of the biggest "Hit Factor" moves this week...a whopping 34% to 73%! CYNDI LAUPER moves up to number 15 in just her third week on the Top 40. Surges ahead big for B-94-PITTSBURGH 24-16, WPST-TRENTON 24-19, WPDZ-CHERAW (28-19), PRO/FM-PROVIDENCE 21-14, WBTT-MILWAUKEE 20-15, WDBR-SPRINGFIELD debuts #20, KFMN-ABILENE 27-13, WBGN-BOWLING GREEN 27-20, KKXX-BAKERSFIELD 29-15, etc. CHAKA KHAN now top 20 at 121 of the 208 stations reporting it moving from a "Hit Factor" of 35% up to 58%...a very healthy gain and surprising some programmers with its widespread appeal. Two biggest gains go to PAUL McCARTNEY and THE HONEYDRIPPERS. McCARTNEY's LP and movie haven't even hit and this song is quickly debuting on a great percentage of the 236 stations that are now listing it. Overall airplay ranking puts him at number seven, debuts at WPLJ-NEW YORK, WKHI-OCEAN CITY, WSQV-WILLIAMSPORT, G100-MOBILE, WHKW-FAYETTE, WKXX-BIRMINGHAM, B-96-CHICAGO, KYYY-BISMARCK, WKTI-MILWAUKEE, Z104-MADISON, KZBQ-POCATELLO, KDON-SALINAS, KWSS-SAN JOSE, etc. HONEYDRIPPERS boasts 211 reports, making it number 14 in overall airplay stats. Chart growth at this early stage already indicates the huge hit potential of this record. JULIAN LENNON bypasses "Chartbound" with more than enough backing to climb onto the Top 40 in only two weeks. Reviewing our "Record To Watch" of two weeks ago, FRANKIE GOES TO HOLLYWOOD, here's the latest: most chart activity is centered on the East and West Coast, with 13 adds taking it into the "Up And Coming" arena. JOHNNY THOMPSON at KFIM-EL PASO reports "phenomenal calls" with only a few negatives from military personnel at nearby Ft.Bliss, White Sands Missle Range, Hollaman AFB and Biggs Field. If heavy objections were to be heard anywhere, this type of area would be it, but so far JOHNNY says it's a winner all the way. WRKR's PAT MARTIN says KISS' "Heaven's On Fire" is his most requested item with the LP Top 5. U2 is making a strong case as a Top 40 crossover this week. Album Radio's audience testified to the huge popularity of this band. 25 new believers include Z106-PHILLY, CFTR-TORONTO, WRCK-UTICA, LG73-VANCOUVER, KMJK-PORTLAND, KUBE-SEATTLE, I-95-MIAMI, KWES-ODESSA/MIDLAND, WLXR-LA CROSSE, KIIS-LOS ANGELES, KMEL-SAN FRANCISCO, KCBN-RENO, etc. Off to a very impressive start.

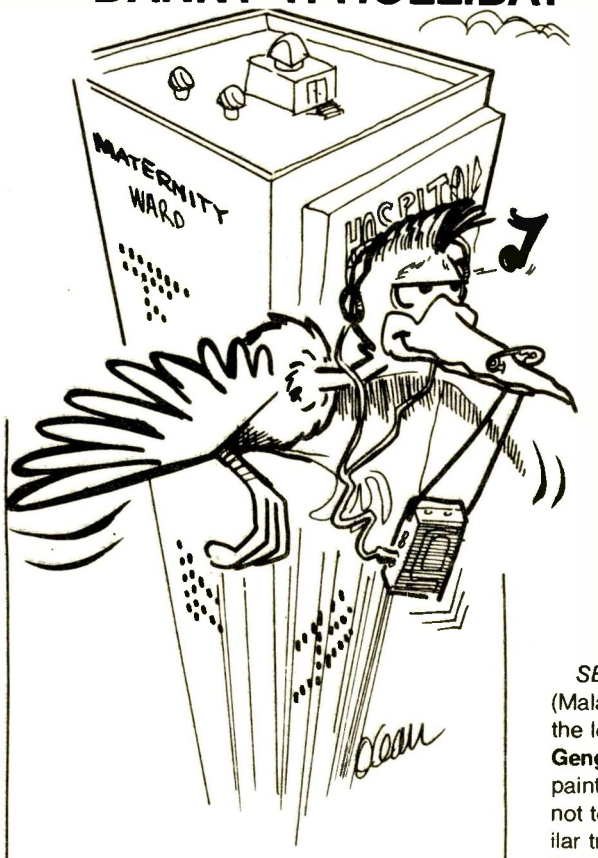
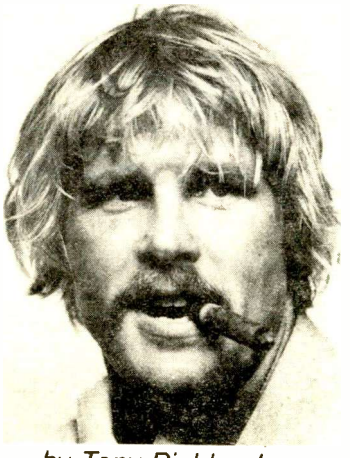
DANNY T. HOLLIDAY



In light of the recent Atlantic release by Julian Lennon, it's time for us to take note of the upcoming slew of recorded product by OTHER children of superstars. Most of these haven't reached you as yet, but you'll be receiving them, and as a public service, we offer a few mini-reviews:

HOW'S YOUR NOSE?—Schmendrick Streisand (Handshake). This witty commentary on the morals of Jersey City is a stunning wax debut by the multi-faceted bar-mitzvah age son of Barbra and Elliot Streisand. Infused with a tactful and tactile aural feel, the most telling point in the opus occurs mid-bridge when the insightful prodigy wails, "What's a tactful and tactile feel?", as pounding tympanies subtly backbeat his lyrical plea. This one gives us goosebumps, and the emotional question inherent in the chorus had us choking on our gefilte fish.



by Tony Richland

TAKE ME TO YOUR HOTPLATE—Bruce John (Blue Thumb). The illegitimate offspring of Elton and the Pointer Sisters weaves a musical quilt to stagger the senses. The Don Imus Singers back the versatile lad as he deftly conveys the story of a troubled youth facing the uncertain-ties of a dinner date with Scott Shannon. It's a pulsating poem with palpitating undertones, not to be ignored by pejorative paragons of pop.

MY EAR ITCHES—Lynn and Len Lauper (Tetragrammaton). Cyndi Lauper's six-year-old Siamese twins have drawn a nostalgic portrait of wistful proportions as they toy with your psyche in this trend-setting tribute to their pet cow. Packing more punchy harmonies into the twelve-second song than is often found in much shorter pop product, the Lauper twins create a vivid view of life on the coast of Bakersfield. Not to be missed.

SEEDED RYE SLICED—Zelda Kahn (Mala). An absolute knockout punch by the lovey daughter of Chaka and Genghis Kahn. The pleading refrain paints a picture of a Brooklyn bakery not touched by Morris Manilow's similar tribute. Shimmering with Kosher theatrics, the lilting verses are as robust as pastrami dipped in chicken fat.

ALL THE GELS I'VE LOVED BEFORE—Julio E. (Amy). The fourteen-year-old son of Iglesias and Sheila E. has carved out a witty answer record to his dad's award-winning duet. Cleverly examining the matter of just what gels are, young Julio links positive thematic material with acoustic snare work and gossamer strings. In a clever promotional accompaniment, each copy of the record is packaged with a complimentary gossamer string for the consumer. Heady stuff!

Next month: Look for the new ones by Guido Springsteen, Palace Buckingham, and Jew Snooten. ■

The Everly Brothers

Together Again For The Fun of It

Ron Fell

I remember hearing the news that the Everly Brothers had broken up. Couldn't be. They were family—figurative Siamese Twins, joined at the heart or the lungs—inseparable harmonizers of rock and roll and countrified love songs. I could understand the breakup of the Beatles or Simon and Garfunkel (two groups which had ground broken for them by Phil and Don). But come on guys, I cut my first teeth or at least kissed my first girl with the help of the mood created by ALL I HAVE TO DO IS DREAM or was it WAKE UP LITTLE SUZIE?

Phil and Don Everly had burned out on each other. In the middle of a weekend series of shows at Knott's Berry Farm in Southern California, Phil walked off the stage in a fit of anger directed at Don. As a parting shot, Phil slammed his acoustic guitar to the stage floor, leaving Don to pick up the pieces. Don had announced earlier in the weekend that this was the end of the road. Don was quoted as having said he was tired of being a relic. "The Everly Brothers had died ten years ago" summed up Don's feelings at that moment.

The brothers had begun their professional music career as part of the Everly Family radio show on KMA—Shenandoah, Iowa after World War II. Father Ike and mother Margaret were a successful country and western act and from time to time they would call upon their seven and nine year old sons to join them for a song mikeside.

While still teenagers they signed as a country duo with Columbia Records, releasing a mediocre single, THE SUN KEEPS SHINING, which, as Phil recalls today, "The only place we ever heard that one was at home."

By this time, 1957, they had moved to Nashville, knockin' on doors. Still contemplating a career as Country performers they chanced across New York record label president Archie Bleyer of Cadence Records (Andy Williams, Julius LaRosa and The Chordettes). Bleyer was looking to expand into the Country and Western market. Bleyer linked up the Everlys with songwriter Boudleaux Bryant who was having a difficult time getting anyone to record a song of his called BYE BYE LOVE. Phil says, "I only recall going into that first recording session willing to sing anything just for the sixty-four dollars that sessions paid 'cause we needed the money."

Within a matter of weeks, it was the number one song in the country. BYE BYE LOVE also had the singular distinction of being the first number one record in THE GAVIN REPORT (known back then as BILL GAVIN'S RECORD REPORT). Over the next three and a half years they had five more number one's in THE GAVIN.

In 1958 they were denied a legitimate number one in Gavin but did have an amazing year nonetheless. They had seven hits while releasing only four records. Their material was so strong that they were able to get hit status for both sides of three singles:

ALL I HAVE TO DO IS DREAM b/w CLAUDETTE

BIRD DOG b/w DEVOTED TO YOU

PROBLEMS b/w LOVE OF MY LIFE

Resuming their streak of number one's, they scored:

APRIL 1959 TAKE A MESSAGE TO MARY

AUGUST 1959 ('TIL) I KISSED YOU

JANUARY 1960 LET IT BE ME

MAY 1960 CATHY'S CLOWN

FEBRUARY 1961 EBONY EYES b/w WALK RIGHT BACK

And none of this includes: WAKE UP LITTLE SUZIE, CRYIN' IN THE RAIN, TEMPTATION, THAT'S OLD FASHION, GONE GONE GONE or WHEN WILL I BE LOVED.

In 1958, with only two hits under their belt they toured England for the first time. Even then the Everly Brothers were big news and big box office. For most of their career both as a brother act and as solo performers, Phil and Don have been, quite possibly, bigger there than here. In 1958 they became one of the first American pop acts to have significant commercial impact across the Atlantic. Their popularity in England played a major role in the inspiration of four Liverpudlians who were to return the invasion five years later.

Phil and Don were once again in England when the Beatles phenomenon took hold during 1962, so the Beatles hysteria was something they understood. Yet Phil says, "I was surprised when America took to the Beatles the way they did." While Phil makes no excuses for the decline of Everly Brothers' popularity in the early 60's, it is probably more than coincidence that the Beatles were beginning to "happen" in synchronicity with the Everlys' decline.

With the British invasion of America at hand, the Everly Brothers' career started to slow. They were without the usual string of hits. They had left Cadence for Warner Bros. and their music began to drift more towards country and western—back to their roots. As a matter of fact, their 1968 LP of that same title, "Roots," was critically acclaimed in its time as a revival of sorts for the Brothers. But a solid return to glory it wasn't. They later signed with RCA but their career slide was still leaving skid marks as they traded on their reputation and the incalculable numbers of memories their former hits brought.

"I only recall going into that first recording session willing to sing anything just for the sixty-four dollars that sessions paid, 'cause we needed the money."

Burnout, blowout, whatever the cause and effect, manifest themselves in graphic terms that day eleven years ago, but in prophetic terms the possibility of a reunion was first predicted in a Rolling Stone piece by Judith Sims a mere month after the breakup. In her last paragraph she quotes a friend of the group, "I'm not convinced that the last time they sing together is on the stage at Knott's Berry Farm. I am convinced that they need a rest from each other, but I can't help believing that they'll sing together again, whether it's two years or ten years from now."

As predicted, Phil and Don did get back together. Despite a long, cold war, a time came in 1983 when a phone call reunited them. Phil is quick to point out that they got together as brothers first and only later as performers. The intended reunion as performers was to be a concert at Royal Albert Hall in London. If there was to be any of that magic it would show in London where their memory might have faded, but not tarnished.

The reunion concert went so well that they thought they might try their hand at recording again. Both brothers were insistent that it would only work if they had the right songs and the right producer. Don called Dave Edmunds, a performer/producer that both admired. It didn't take long for Dave to agree to terms. Phil remembers: "Dave called Paul McCartney and asked if he would write a song or did he have a song. A week later Paul called him back with ON THE WINGS OF A NIGHTINGALE." It was that simple. When McCartney's demo arrived at the studio it already had two-part harmonies included. A nice touch from someone who had openly admired and emulated the Everly Brothers in the past.

Both Phil and Don were no strangers to modern studio technology. Both had continued solo careers during their professional divorce. But in the recording of their first studio LP in eleven years, EB84, Phil thought of the differences between recording BYE BYE LOVE for $64 and putting it all on the line with EB84.

Getting a natural feel into and out of the music is difficult and necessary to Phil. He asked the rhetorical question; "Do you lose something being able to revamp and rearrange? I don't know. We tried to maintain 'feel.' I firmly believe that the basic ingredient of any music is the way it makes you feel. If you are not careful you can edit that out. I like the technology, but you have to be careful with the use of it."

EB84 effectively combines technology with natural feel and is balanced between the sweet harmonies of casual country and the contemporary kick of mid 80's pop and rock—a truly bountiful, contemporary piece, appropriately void of any nostalgic K-Tel mentality.

Since the recording of EB84 Phil and Don embarked on a nine week Summer tour which began in Cincinnati and ended here in the San Francisco Bay Area. On the road in support were many of the same musicians who contributed to the making of the album including Pete Wingfield and Albert Lee.

I asked Phil what was in the future for them both and he said: "Don and I will make records as long as we can have a good time at it and as long as somebody wants to hear it. I'll continue to write. I'll probably die with a pencil in my hand." (Phil wrote WHEN WILL I BE LOVED as an Everly Brothers song in 1960 and it was wonderfully redone by Linda Ronstadt almost twenty years later.)

You get the feeling talking to Phil, that both he and Don are at peace with themselves and each other, that they don't have to do anything, but that they enjoy being on stage together and they enjoy recording again. □

ANALYSIS

October 19, 1984

As James Brown once said "It's A Man's World" and though he wasn't lookin' at an A/C chart at the moment of inspiration, the phrase has certainly applied to the top part of the chart recently. It's also a ballad-oriented chart at the moment with Wham! and Hall & Oates pickin' up the tempo as their rotations improve. Next week's debuts will likely include: Jermaine Jackson, The Honeydrippers and Band of Gold Stations please note: When we begin putting A/C reports into our new computer all A/C stations will have to report rotations rather than by numbered ranking. Your help in making this conversion will be greatly appreciated.

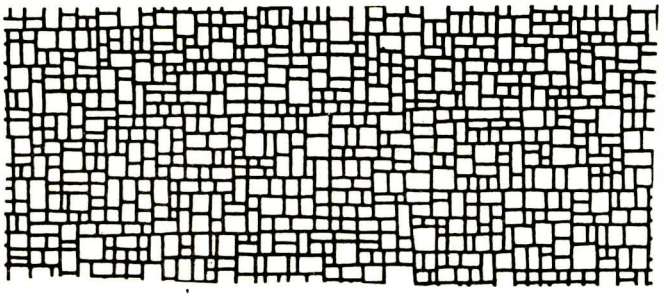
MR. ROBERTS



THE PHRENDLY PHILOSOPHER

by Art Roberts

Hi there, Hot Shot ... Troubled 'cause you've been in radio for ten years and can't read an ARB? So you finally break down and ask your manager, and find out he can't read one either ... And you stopped at a red light, right next to a police car, and the cop kept staring at you, and you got that "guilty" feeling ... And when you got home, you found out that your aunt was visiting you and she gave you that rotten pinch on the cheek ... And your "Lady" moved out when she saw your aunt, but before she left she straightened up your room and now you can't find nothin' ... And you told this guy at a bar what a creep your Program Director was, and he turned out to be the PD's brother-in-law ... Is that why your knees are knockin' Noodnick?

Well then, point your nose to the sky and your chin to the wall, stick to the paper and keep your feet on the floor, and Remember ... "Only A Lollipop Gets Licked!"

Hi there, Eagle Rock ... Did you buy a pair of designer jeans to really be "in", but nobody can see the label 'cause it's covered by your stomach ... And every time you follow a rainbow to the end you wind up with a pot of soup ... And yesterday you told your Program Director you had never been humiliated like that in your whole life, and today you got humiliated worse ... And you did a four hour show before you realized you had used the next day's log ... And you are thirty-seven years old and still only work weekends and summer relief ... Is that what's saggin' your sox, Shylock?

Well then, take the lead out of your purse, clean the wax out of your ears, march down the street with your Indiana Jones hatband flying in the wind, and Remember ... "An Ingrown Toenail Is Better Than No Nail At All!"

Hi there, Cat Gut ... Did you spend fifty dollars for a tennis racket to use at the station tournament, but by the time you got home it had warped in the trunk of your car ... And that new lady in the traffic department gave you a demonstration of a perfect backhand, right in the mouth ... And at the tournament you took a macho leap over the net and wound up a soprano-for-a-day ... And you played against this athletic newsperson, and she beat you six-love, six-love, six-love, but it wasn't until you got her home that you found out that "love" meant "nothing" ... And now, when you play doubles with the guys at the station they make you stand on the outside of the fence just in case any balls get hit over ... Is that where they left you at the post, Petunia?

Well then, hear me out ... brush your teeth every morning and your sneakers every night, scratch your head in an alley and your bottom behind a desk, look alert, look alive, 'cause people are lookin' at you, don't go beggin' for sympathy, and Remember "Let The PD Get The Points, You Get Cash!"

One way to keep customs from searching your luggage ... put your dirty underwear on top.

You know in the morning when you find money in your pocket that you have your son's pants on by mistake.

The Post Office will be fully automated in several years, with a machine that can sort, cancel and lose a letter in one operation.

I had a bad night last night. Last thing I remember the cop was calling in for an extra ticket book.

We flew in on Fat Chance Airlines. Stewardess told us in case of emergency, the meatloaf could be used as a flotation device.

We had a bad football team. One weekend the crowd pulled down the goalposts. To keep us from playing next Saturday.

BIO FEEDBACK

MERLE HAGGARD
His derisive OKIE FROM MUSKOGEE was released fifteen years ago this month. The song was written as a lark while Merle and his band rode the band bus through Oklahoma.

BANGLES
Originally called The Bangs, they changed their name to "The Bangles" after another band claimed the name.

SHERYL LEE RALPH
Sheryl Lee Ralph appears on Broadway in "Dreamgirls" in addition to playing "Mac" on TV's "Search For Tomorrow."

RALPH MacDONALD
He got his start playing percussion in Harry Belafonte's band. He co-wrote "Where Is The Love" for Belafonte, but a cover version by Roberta Flack & Donny Hathaway in 1972 became the hit.

BIG COUNTRY/TOM ROBINSON
Big Country, Tom Robinson, Madness, and The Style Council are among the artists lending a hand in the English Anti-Heroin Campaign. These acts have agreed to wear "anti-heroin" tee shirts on tour as well as being part of the anti-drug concert.

BROTHERS JOHNSON
Brother Louis was the busiest on "Beat It". For emphasis, his part was overdubbed three times.

BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN
Besides running six miles a day, Springsteen watches TV evangelist Jimmy Swaggert religiously.

HUEY LEWIS
S.F. Chronicle/Examiner reports the band is taking Ray Parker Jr. to court over "Ghostbusters." Seems Huey and his management feel the theme from one of this year's biggest films sounds a bit too much like their hit "I Want A New Drug." Melody Maker reports that Robin Scott, writer and performer of the hit "Pop Musik" by M is similarly miffed.

JACK WAGNER
Since December of '83, Wagner has played Frisco Jones, lead singer of the mythical band Riff Raff, on the ABC soap opera, General Hospital.

WHAM!
"Wake Me Up Before You Go-Go" first reached #1 in Britain last May, then hit the top of the chart in Australia, Belgium, Holland, Norway, Austria, Denmark, and Ireland.

JOHN CAFFERTY
Hollywood is re-releasing the movie Eddie & the Cruisers after John Cafferty's success on radio and the movie's cable television popularity.

JAMES BROWN
October 24th marks the 22nd Anniversary of the recording of JB's famous "Live At The Apollo" album.

JULIAN LENNON
According to his father John, HEY JUDE was actually written by Paul McCartney but it was intended to be about Julian.

P.D. NOTEBOOK by Eric Norberg

Charlie Fox of KORV in Oroville called the other day. He'd put a job opening in the Gavin Report recently, and received over 100 applications. That's really remarkable. (It should be noted that other publications regularly reprint Gavin job openings in their own pages—I discovered that the last time I inserted a job opening in the Gavin Report only, and monitored where the applications were coming from.)

Charlie was understandably enthusiastic about receiving so many applications for his opening. His enthusiasm dimmed a little when he examined the applications and listened to the tapes. He called to suggest it might be worthwhile to do a column on the "don'ts" of submitting an application.

If you don't know where Oroville is, you should be informed that it is a relatively small community in Northern California. It is a nice market but hardly a major one. Surprisingly, many of the applicants didn't seem to be aware of that. Some applications were from major market types working in big cities, for salaries they could not hope to approach in Oroville. Others were in markets that were approximately the same as Oroville and were seeking to make a "lateral move." Still others were raw beginners, as yet unqualified to work in a market the size of Oroville.

Some lessons already are apparent! (1) Know something about the market you're applying to. At the very least, look it up in an atlas! Check in S.R.D.S. to find market size. If you can, go further: Call a station in another market in the region; ask the PD or GM about the market you're interested in. Get an idea whether you're really interested in the market and station before you apply. (There are actually some who apply for jobs they never intend to take, simply to see if they are accepted. Those who pull that stunt have doors closing on them when they really do need a job.)

(2) Know your own abilities. If you're "too good for the market," employers may wonder why you want to work there; if you're applying to a station you are not yet qualified to work for, the PD is as apt to reject you for your lack of judgment as for your lack of qualifications! Be realistic.

(3) When you make a move, make it a positive one—for a better job, at a better station, or in a better market situation. A lateral move gets you nowhere professionally, and raises questions as to whether you're a "floater," likely to be gone again too fast to warrant the investment in you as an employee.

Charlie also found many of the letters and resumes were poorly written or incomplete. Since your written presentation is half of what you'll be judged on by the person receiving it, if the resume and/or letter shows sloppy thinking, a lack of education, or someone with little personal interest in where they are working, just as long as they are working, then you may write yourself right out of a job. Doing it right says a lot about you.

More about the letter and resume, next week. ■

1. "WE BELONG"-PAT BENATAR (CHRYSALIS)
2. "I Do'wANNA Know"-REO SPEEDWAGON (EPIC-12")
3. "STRANGER IN TOWN"-TOTO (COLUMBIA-12")

ALTERNATIVE ACTION

CERTIFIED

"WE BELONG"-PAT BENATAR (CHRYSALIS)
Most added by an eyelash with hot competition from REO and, on the chart, from Julian Lennon. Benatar racked up out-of-box rotation for a debut at #29.

"ALL THE RAGE"-GENERAL PUBLIC (IRS)
Roger and Dave's new venture receives the CERTIFIED endorsement, aiming for number one in the next few weeks.

NEW Releases

Forest Fire/Perfect Skin/Speedboat/Down On Mission St.-LLOYD COLE & COMMOTIONS (Polydor-UK) This band seems to have it all. LLOYD COLE looks like a cross between MEL GIBSON and KURT RUSSELL. That alone will help hook 51 % of this country. Now the rest of the story is the good part. The music is in the tradition of GENE VINCENT, TOM PETTY, and maybe BOB DYLAN. Produced by the steady PAUL HARDIMAN (who worked on the overlooked THE THE lp), attitude shines through the music in glowing heaps. The arrangements, whether they be guitars, drums or even strings, add just the right amount of cool versus power. I love the clarity, the sincerity, and the sashaying strut almost every track possesses. Most of all, it's the subtle animalism that takes hold first. The name of the LP (just out) is called RATTLESNAKE. I see a big commotion heading in our direction.

"The Wild Boys"-DURAN DURAN (Capitol-12") From the upcoming live set, "The Wild Boys" has a jagged studio edge that will appease both the rabid loyal teen following of DURANNIES plus format-worried programmers who tend to keep a watchful eye over the sound of their playlists. DURAN DURAN has always kept a somewhat progressive slant to their music long before they entered the sanctimonious caverns of teenbeat stardom. Just because their live shows are destroyed by the half-witted shrieks of pre-pubes doesn't mean that rational creative adult minds aren't behind the scenes. I, for one, rise to their defense ever. If vocalist LeBON is hanging vocally by a thread on this one.

Run To You-BRYAN ADAMS (A&M-single) This song clicked in half-way into the first spin. The repeated "Run To You" hook should shatter any and all barriers between Album and Top Forty pronto.

Concealed Weapons-J.GEILS BAND (EMI-12") Life without PETER WOLF. It's obvious that lots has been done to try and conceal his absence. The name of the LP is YOU'RE GETTING EVEN WHILE I'M GETTING ODD. These will be scary and critical times for the whole band. The track will require a back announce.

Stranger In Town-TOTO (Columbia) TOTO's in less trouble without their lead singer (since replaced). Sounding a little like ULTRAVOX, TOTO groomed their listeners to expect different vocalists. The more you hear the Gregorian Chant hook, the more you'll go for the longer album version. Quite a spectacular mix.

Don't Sing/Couldn't Bear To Be Special/I Never Play Basketball-PREFAB SPROUT (Epic) When ELVIS COSTELLO made his solo acoustic tour, I was amazed that he included a PREFAB SPROUT song inside his sacred repertoire. PS sound very close in structure to the first AZTEC CAMERA songs. The liberties PADDY McALOON takes with his verses and choruses shows an innocently flagrant disregard for formula and predictability. Instead, PREFAB shows great promise that will make them as respected a few years from now as COSTELLO or JOE JACKSON are now.

Catch My Fall-BILLY IDOL (Chrysalis) After Top Forty choked badly on the lp's best track "Rebel Yell", they were damn lucky three subsequent trax rose to the challenge of singledom. BILLY's soulmate, guitarist STEVEN STEVEN, makes his usual deft contribution to this tracks hitbound impact. The lp's potential fourth hit in my mind.

ANALYSIS

The TOP THREE is underlined because each shows unwaning strength. The HONEYDRIPPERS glide Top Five. HALL & OATES trax are now finally spreading, lodged at #11. Other big news is the CARS turnaround, BILLY SQUIER's turnaround, and PETER WOLF's extreme turnaround. HONEYMOON SUITE looks threatening still, hence an underline. Other movers also doing well Top Forty include FRANKIE GOES TO HOLLYWOOD, PAT BENATAR, JULIAN LENNON, REO, and PAUL McCARTNEY. Strong debut candidates include HUEY (again!), TOTO, and BLACKFOOT...and what a week it was. LENNON and McCARTNEY both released Lp's this week--each a generation apart...say hello to the computer age. Our Hewlett-Packard Frigenhiemer 900 is all fired up and ready to go. Expect soulful computerized Album charts in the weeks to come while Top Forty works out all the bugs (not a pleasant process)...the first CD pressing plant to open in the USA is in Terre Haute owned by CBS. First pressings include BORN IN THE USA now pressed in the USA...On the retail front, VAN HALEN's new single is packaged in a cool clear plastic cover, TALKING HEAD's cassette has six extended versions and one remix, while JIMI HENDRIX has an audiofile pressing of his greatest hits--all the work of the BURBANK BUNNYPEOPLE...IT HADDA HAPPEN PART TWO: segue of the week is FRED SCHNEIDER's "Monster In My Pants' into FOUR IN LEGION's "Party In My Pants"...know your audience dept. According to a poll in California, do you realize that RONALD REAGAN's strongest support is between the ages of 18-29, even stronger than 60+. Are we entering a new Eisenhower era? I know. SAMMY HAGAR's working on a song called "There You Go Again". Last week's newspaper reported NEIL YOUNG also going for RONNIE...After reviewing and sorting through dozens of acts, nothing hit like the advance tape from LOS LOBOS. Produced by T. BONE BURNETT, there's slices of the FAB T.BIRDS, RY COODER, and the magic on the first LL EP, which won a GRAMMY. ALTERNATIVE CROSSOVERS this week range from the very TOP (BOWIE,U2) to the middle (FRANKIE) to the end (GENERAL PUB). ALTERNATIVE ACTION's impact is all encompassing. There was a dogfight for CERTIFIED status this week. If we could have awarded three CERTIFIEDs, JULIAN and REO would have received them. However, BENATAR walked away the winner. Interesting note about FRANKIE GOES TO HQLLYWOOD in DAVE SHOLIN's Analysis on page four....regarding TOTO's new single, I love how they slipped in the "son of a bitch". Real smoooth. KZ

Our POWER TRIO repeats again this week with all three band U2, LET'S ACTIVE, and the TALKING HEADS moving up one slot.

U2 moves to number one, beating out the rest of the field by a wide margin. U2's reign is spear-headed by the heavy airplay they still receive from college stations and commercial GAVIN INDICATORS alike.

LET'S ACTIVE and the TALKING HEADS score fine weeks but physically don't have much more room to move up. This accounts for the lack of underlines on both records. Remember, a line isn't a reward for this week, it's a projection for next.

The dB's, our GAVIN CERTIFIED GENERAL PUBLIC, and AZTEC CAMERA are all jumping up the chart but are en-route towards rush-hour traffic within the tight top five.

The DEL FUEGO'S climb has been modest. However, they're rapidly gaining momentum that could catapult them into the top five dog-fight. Non-commerical programmers were on it immediately, but now commercial stations like KCGL,WOXY,'BCN,'FNX,'XRT, etc. have jumped on the case.

The RAMONES' outstanding debut is no fluke. From MOST ADDED to #14 on the chart, they will likely be CERTIFIED next week.

Our current MOST ADDED is XTC. From the response we've gotten so far, it sounds like it will be a major ALTERNATIVE album.

I'll see many of you in three weeks at the CMJ MUSIC MARATHON in NEW YORK (NOV.8th-10th).

ANALYSIS

Congratulations to the Gavin Country Correspondents! All Certified records from August 24th through September 28th are in the Top Ten this week. (Except two: "What Would Your Memories Do" by VERN GOSDIN "Woman Your Love" by MOE BANDY.) JOHN SCHNEIDER, EXILE, and JOHN NDERSON would all have loved to have eased WILLIE off the top of the chart, but that did not conform to the wishes of WILLIE's fans. Those of you who predicted RICKY SKAGGS would be the Top Add had 41 programmers backing you up. JOHN SCHNEIDER has been the Top Requested for four weeks. Calls have increased to three times as many as his nearest competitor. Be prepared for THE JUDDS to follow suit. The chart is impressive and should continue to be such, with the product bubbling in Action Sides and more being released. EDDIE EDWARDS at WMC-MEMPHIS reminds us that CONWAY TWITTY's new single "Ain't She Something" was a hit in 1974 for EDDY RAVEN on ABC records. T.G. SHEPPARD's "One Owner Heart" and MEL McDANIEL's "Baby's Got Her Blue Jeans On" will have listeners turning up the volume at your dial position!

PROMOTIONS

TAKE A SHOT AT CHRIS

KDWB-MINNEAPOLIS' CHRIS EDMONDS' body was offered as a target for this year's Renaissance festival. The station had large posters made up of Chris and used them for targets at the archery range at the festival. Chris was there inviting people to take a shot at him for the chance to win a free turkey drumstick. The shoot lasted three hours and all the proceeds went to "Hope International," a non-profit organization that assists people in adopting children in other countries. Chris' posters were so popular, more than 1500 people participated.

DROP AN EGG

What would your egg-catching device look like? If you were in DENVER on October 5th, you could have competed in the 7th Annual Great KIMN Egg Drop. Each year, KIMN listeners design the most incredible devices imaginable to catch eggs dropped from the top of a 29-story dome tower in downtown Denver. The only rule of this hilarious event is that the egg-catching devices must be able to be held in one hand. Anyone who accomplished the feat splits a $2,000 cash prize. (The raw egg must be intact after the 362 foot drop into the egg-catcher.)

HELP FOR WOMEN

During "Women's Health Awareness Week" LOS ANGELES' KFWB RADIO sponsors a program in conjunction with the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, during the week of November 12-17. Experts from various women's organizations will staff the KFWB phones and answer questions concerning women and their health. W.H.A.W. will afford women the opportunity to participate in their own health care by visiting special women's health fairs at shopping centers throughout Los Angeles county.

HOME FREE

No more monthly house payments? If you're the lucky winner of KFKF (94FM)-KANSAS CITY'S "Great American Dream" contest, the station will write you a check for whatever the balance owing on your home mortgage is, up to $100,000. This listener will have to get used to the idea of that first payment every month disappearing forever! This is the largest prize ever offered on the radio in Kansas City.

SOAPS

Fans of "The Young & The Restless" had a chance to meet its star, Michael Damian, recently, thanks to CFUN-VANCOUVER. Damian plays Danny Romalatti in this popular daytime soap opera. CFUN's TOM LUCAS hosted the Michael Damian autograph sessions at two Vancouver malls, where Damian signed copies of his new album, "Love Is A Mystery." CFUN promotions assistant, LEA CARPENTER, one of the coordinators of the successful event, held the crowds at bay and showed Damian and friend, PETER FONDA (pictured above) the Vancouver nite life.

THE PAYING PHRASE IN PEORIA

GARY BRUCE, P.D. of WMBD-PEORIA writes us of his cash and prize giveaway, which enables a listener a daily payoff of $100 in cash and prizes with the intent of extending listening periods of current listeners. Once hourly during morning drive, Bob & Leo, the morning team, give a station sell line and tell listeners they should tune in later in the day for the cue to call the station and repeat the phrase. The 14th caller wins daily. As a twist, sponsors who participate have a display at their retail locations which lists the daily phrase. "This creates interest for potential new listeners while increasing store traffic. Although the phrase is not given out over the phone, the clients still get phone calls from listeners, which reinforces positive effect of radio!" says Gary.

ANALYSIS

"Big Bottleneck" best describes our top 5 (or, "TIME" flies and everyone else doesn't!). Our top 4 remain in control of the top of the chart, and TIME is the only thing that comes close. CHAMPAIGN, STEPHANIE MILLS, and LEON HAYWOOD are the prime contenders for the top spots in the near future, but the bottleneck could hold them at bay for a long while. A pretty substantial jump for APOLLONIA 6 this week shows that it will vie for a good position soon, too. Biggest surprise comes from the CONTROLLERS this week, who are anything but "Crushed" by the stiff competition. It debuts at #23, and our "Hit Factor" percentage chart shows that 63% of our reporters have it charted in their top 20 or in "Hot Rotation". These include: KEN RUSH, KNOW-Austin (8-3), DONNIE TAYLOR, WYLD-NEW ORLEANS (8), B.J. TAYLOR, WBLX-MOBILE (13), BARRY RICHARDS, KGFJ-LOS ANGELES (14), QUINN MARK, KROF-ABBEVILLE (16), MARVIN ROBINSON, KSOL/FM-SAN FRANCISCO (20), LEE MICHAELS, WBMX/FM-CHICAGO (18) - So It Goes "CERTIFIED"! NEICY does nicely this week, with her third hit in a row wooing and winning the holdouts her third week out. Chart debut, too, for the ISLEY trio who have moved into Hot Rotation at most stations: WRKS-NEW YORK (11), WDRQ-DETROIT (12), KMJM-ST. LOUIS (16), KNOK-DALLAS (18), WANM-TALLAHASSEE (19), WUSL/FM-PHILLY (23), WBLX-MOBILE (25), WDKX-ROCHESTER (25), KGFJ-LOS ANGELES (16), and on at WBLZ-CINCY, KROF-ABBEVILLE, WYLD-NEW ORLEANS, KHYS-PT.ARTHUR, KKDA-DALLAS, KIIZ-KILLEEN, etc. New on the "Up & Coming" this week are SOS BAND and JERMAINE STEWART: both rank high and qualify for our "Most Added" winners.

PERSONAL PICKS

DURAN DURAN-The Wild Boys (Capitol) Even without artist identification, it shouldn't be too tough to solve the mystery and name the band. Shades of "Hungry Like The Wolf" and "Union Of The Snake" are woven into a brilliant rhythmic concoction, liberally flavored with soulful ingredients. Destined to make its way onto Top 40, R&B, and Album Radio playlists.

THE TIME-Jungle Love (Warner Brothers) "Purple Rain" was the vehicle that Morris Day needed to get mass exposure. Their outrageous live act must be seen to be believed. The video is much like that of "Let's Go Crazy", featuring clips of the movie "Purple Rain" which also features this track. Remember, I never like to recommend a crossover before its Time....and it's Time.

TOTO-Stranger In Town (Columbia) Paich/Porcaro pour it on with a streamlined Toto sound in the last quarter of '84. Goes beyond their earlier efforts but retaining the style that earned all those Grammy Awards. When it comes to production these guys are in a league all their own. It's always a good sign to hear a record, look at the time on the label and expect it to be about a minute shorter.

BRYAN ADAMS-Run To You (A&M) Absolutely no one will have to ask, "Hey, what's the title of that song?". Once again he shoots straight from the heart demonstrating that love songs don't necessarily need to be soft, sweet, or silly. Adams has been able to expand his audience base without sacrificing his Album Rock image. Here's an excellent example why.

LAURA BRANIGAN-Ti Amo (Atlantic) OK...order up some vino,a little pesto pasta and put this on to complete the scene. Romance and Laura go together and when she belts out a love song, the heat gets very intense. "Ti Amo" means "I Love You" in Italian, but the way Branigan sings it, it spells hit in any language.

Hot Items:

The week's biggest story is datelined NEW YORK as RKO GENERAL announces the resignation of Radio Division President ROBERT J. WILLIAMSON. Named to replace WILLIAMSON is 15 year RKO veteran and VP/GM of RKO's Washington outlet WGMS AM/FM JERRY LYMAN, who was also Corp/VP of government relations for RKO. He was President of the FM Division of the company from 1977 until 1982. RKO General President SHANE O'NEIL in announcing the appointment said, "JERRY LYMAN will bring a new direction to RKO Radio. His broadcasting expertise and excellent judgement will serve the company well now and in the future." Congratulations to MARC DRISCOLL of WZPL-Indianapolis, named National P.D. for the Heftel Group.

ALBUMS OF THE WEEK

GIVE MY REGARDS TO BROADSTREET-PAUL McCARTNEY (COLUMBIA) PAUL McCARTNEY has never leaned back and rested easy on his laurels rehashing BEATLE tunes, which is what finally makes the BROADSTREET Soundtrack so pleasant. It is fitting that McCARTNEY pays cinematic tribute to Great Britain's publishing district, since now, not only is he an institutional pillar of a songwriter, but he's quite the mogul when it comes down to owning a huge folio of yours and my favorite songs of old. Aside from the new tunes included on this LP, PAUL's life is pressed onto vinyl in the form of familiar medleys, mixing new titles, solo highlights, and his own Fab Four standards. If, and only if, the movies takes off big, this soundtrack stands to be a monster. At the very least, its impact will outshine PIPES OF PEACE. NO MORE LONELY NIGHTS/YESTERDAY - HERE,THERE EVERYWHERE - WANDERLUST/NOT SUCH A BAD BOY/NO VALUES.

ITALIAN X-RAYS-STEVE MILLER BAND (CAPITOL) Sedated and heavily textured with keyboard interludes, Brother STEVE serenades a little softer from the wilds of Idaho down to Southern California. ITALIAN X RAYS is a little like FLY LIKE AN EAGLE meets Windham Hill, as STEVE unites a new direction with his trademark low harmonies. Lyrically, MILLER is on his way towards starting a whole new pop language. Some Examples: OHH WOO WOO OOH OOH, WOOOOOOOOOO YEAAAAAAAAAH, OHHHHHHHHH, AHHHHHHH, BA BA BA BONGO BONGO, UM HUMMMMMMMMMMMMM, and of course, DIT DIT DA DIT DIE O. Trivia note: MILLER co-wrote two tunes with TIM DAVIS, an original band member from the very first LP, CHILDREN OF THE FUTURE. ITALIAN X RAYS/GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY/ SHANGRI-LA.

MAKE IT BIG-WHAM! (COLUMBIA) It's hard to believe that WHAM! and FRANKIE GOES TO HOLLYWOOD reach the same mass audience overseas. Yet both bands are well on their way towards breaking big ground here,also. The duo that is WHAM! (GEORGE MICHAEL and ANDREW RIDGELY) have long ago conquered the ears and heels of dance clubbers across the country. Now after just one listen to this, their second LP, American radio looks like sittin' ducks as these two go for their guns and take serious aim. When you stop and think about it, music like WHAM!'s is timeless in the sense that, like all good bubblebop, combining pretty faces with catchy tunes was one of the early,most basic reasons rock 'n' roll was invented. WAKE ME UP BEFORE YOU GO-GO/EVERYTHING SHE WANTS/ FREEDOM/ and George Michael's solo single CARELESS WHISPER.

/ALOTTE-JULIAN LENNON (ATLANTIC) Balladeering seems to be the direction young JULIAN LENNON has decided to take, as VALOTTE lives up to the direction the stunning debut single hinted at. Using no less than two dozen players and five studios, producer PHIL RAMONE lays it on thick. One word sums it all up - ambitious. VALOTTE/ TOO LATE FOR GOODBYES/JESSE.
